Our retreat this year was an awesome event, and yes, very uplifting. So rewarding...is how I would describe this third retreat.

Celebrating PROMISES
and
The MARRIAGE
LAMB

I really enjoyed the retreat also- just too short; especially since we had to leave early. Since Pam was in my group, I finally got to know her a little bit. I've known her since we were teenagers, but this is the first time I've ever had any close contact with her. I made sure I got home with all the "trinkets" I put my smiley face on my desk, stuck it in in my pencil jar, so I could see it every day

My Friend, please know that it was my blessing and benefit to have been a part of the retreat. I was so exhausted, physically and emotionally, but it was so worth it!!! Angel didn't know what to expect but really enjoyed it and said she would go again.

It was great getting to see everyone and learning and laughing together.
